

"Well, then, Sir, perhaps you have not forgotten the turnpike gate through which you passed daily. My father kept that gate, and was very often honored with a few minutes chat with you. One Christmas morning my father was sick, and I attended the toll bar. On that day you passed through, and I opened the gate. Do you recollect it, Sir?"

"Not I, my friend."

"No, Sir; few such men remember their kind deeds, but those benefited by them seldom forget them. I am, perhaps, prolix; listen, however, only a few moments, and I have done."

The banker, who began to feel interested, at once assented.

"Well, Sir, as I said before, I threw open the gate for you, and as I considered myself in duty bound, I wished you a happy Christmas. 'Thank you, my lad,' replied you; 'thank you, and the same to you; here is a trifle to make it so; and you throw me a seven shilling piece. It was the first money I ever possessed, and never shall I forget my joy on receiving it, or your kind smile when bestowing it. I long treasured it, and I grew up, added a little to it, till I was able to rent a toll myself. You soon after left that part of the country, and I lost sight of you. Yearly, however, I have been gaining on, your present brought good fortune with it; I am now comparatively rich, and to you I consider I owe all. So, this morning, hearing accidentally that there was a run on your bank, I drew my deposits from my banker, and have brought them to lodge with you, in case they can be of any use; here they are, Sir—here they are," and he handed a bundle of bank notes to the agitated Thompson. "In a few days I'll call again," and snatching up his hat, the stranger, throwing down his card, immediately walked out of the room.

Thompson opened the roll; it contained $30,000! The stern-hearted banker burst into tears. The firm did not require this prop; but the motive was so noble that even a millionaire was affected—he could not help it. The firm is still one of the first in the City of London.

AMERICAN REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR MAYOR,
WILLIAM J. SWINBURNE.

Kansas is a great golem, whose plains are becoming white with the bleached skulls of Democratic politicians. It is a poisoned valley, through which no politician can pass and come out again alive. Reader meet his death there so did Shannon; so did Geary; so will Walker. Walker is the next victim. He doubtless imagines that a residence in Mississippi has qualified him for all sorts of deadly climates, and that he will go through Kansas unscathed. Vain man! The very batteries which the Democratic newspapers, as in duty bound, are heaping upon him, are potent weapons of the time when these same newspapers will be denouncing him with a regular democratic savagery. When Reader passed through St. Louis, on his way to Kansas, all the anti-Bentonite office holders waited on him, and with each other in heaping courtesies on their brother. When he passed through St. Louis, on his way from Kansas, not an anti-Unionist could be found to speak to him. Yet he was the same Reader. But the administration had ostracized him, and of course the office-holder took the cue, and gave him the cold shoulder too. So it was with Shannon, and so it was with Geary. And the little servile Democratic organ here "congratulates the people of Kansas that they are to have an administration of such able men" as Walker for Governor, and Stanton for Secretary of State, we remember how similar things were said of the three preceding victims, and tremble.—Poor Walker—poor Stanton—exiled to Kansas only to be brought home dead men.—St. Louis Intelligencer.

Mr. Walker already perceives his mission to Kansas to be a total failure, and will avail himself of any good reason for not going at all. He has the sagacity to perceive that either the troubles are ended in that Territory by the final and permanent success of the Slavery party, or that the system just agreed upon here, based upon recognition of the Border Ruffian Legislature, will prevent any adjustment except by violent means. I repeat the conviction, that Mr. Walker will not go to Kansas, and that Mr. Stanton, of Tennessee, will remain Governor until the Territory becomes a State. When Mr. Walker decided to take no part in Kansas affairs, until the arrangements for the formation of pro-slavery constitution were nearly completed, instead of assuming his difficult and responsible duties at once, I considered it determined that he had practically declined the place.

It is feared that as soon as the constitution shall be formed by the faction that now controls the proceedings preliminary to it, the Administration will order the discontinuance of the Territorial Government, in order to create a more urgent claim for the prompt and favorable action of Congress. This part of the Democratic plan may be regarded as settled.—Cor. N. Y. Cour. & Eng.

WHAT CONSTITUTES TRUE BRAVERY? The Duke of Wellington, seeing a man turn pale, as without moving a muscle, he marched up to a battery, remarked: "That is a brave man; he knows his danger and faces it." The bravest men have been those of a high-toned, finely organized temperament, and therefore of an acutely nervous structure. Caesar, Bonaparte, Washington, and all men of great purpose and daring, were of this nervous temperament. The man who delights in scenes of bloodshed, and is utterly unmindful and reckless of danger, cannot be called the brave man.—His courage is merely that of the brute, without reason or judgment.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER is decidedly the most popular family medicine known, for no other remedy has been so successful in relieving all kinds of pain. It is most appropriately called Pain Killer.

THRILLING ROMANCE.—SOLD.—Some time since a Cincinnati paper received and printed the first chapter of what promised to be a thrilling romance, in the expectation of being provided with the concluding portions as they might be needed. The chapter was very ingeniously written, and concluded by leaving its principal character suspended by the pantaloons from the limb of a tree over a perpendicular precipice. It attracted the attention of the press, and inquiries began to be made concerning the continuation of the story and the fate of the hero. Day after day the victimized publishers looked for the remaining chapters, but in vain—they never came to hand. Finding that they had been sold, and wishing to put a stop to the jokes their contemporaries were cracking at their expense, they briefly concluded the story thus:

"CHAPTER II.—CONCLUSION."

"After hanging to the treacherous limb for four weeks, his pantaloons gave way, and Charles Melville rolled headlong over the yawning precipice. He fell a distance of five miles, and came down with the small of his back across a staked-and-riddled fence, which so jarred him that he was compelled to travel in Italy for his health, where he is at present residing. He is engaged in the butchering business, and is the father of a large family of children."

THE YELLOW FEVER AT RIO JANEIRO.—New York, April 9.—Advices from Rio Janeiro of Feb. 15, report the weather as very warm, with yellow fever quite prevalent among the shipping. The deaths average ten a day on board of vessels but the health of the city was good. Captains Dearborn of the American barque Fame, and Hobson of the barque Wheatland, had died of the disease.

Twenty thousand bags of coffee, mostly inferior remained in first hands for shipment to the United States. Freight low and scarce. Flour low with a downward tendency; Gallego $20; Richmond $18.

ARREST FOR MURDER.—The bark Valetta, Capt. Mosman, from Messina Feb. 25th, arrived below yesterday forenoon, having on board, as a prisoner, Joseph Morris, who is sent home from Trieste by the American Consul at that port, for having murdered one David Scott at a port near Trieste, in September last. Morris was mate of the American ship Crescent, Capt. Sparrow, and Scott was a seaman aboard the same vessel.—Some trouble arose among the crew, when Morris struck Scott with a hatchet, causing his death. The prisoner was brought to this city by an officer of the harbor police.—Boston Chronicle.

The Washington Star, the lesser organ of the administration at the capital, comes down on Gov. Geary because he has told facts about the outrages in Kansas. The Star says:

"By the by, he tells the truth in asserting that the administration rejected his advice with reference to Kansas affairs. That's evident in the selections so recently made of new federal officers for the territory, every man of whom is a democratic of the right stamp, entertaining no sympathy with abolitionism, and evidently opposed to all Geary's schemes for his personal political advancement."

LOST.—A few nights ago, somewhere in the House of Commons, the self-command of a late Right Honorable Chancellor of the Exchequer. The Right Honorable gentleman is well-assured that he carried the article about him until a late hour of the evening, when it must have accidentally fallen from him in the heat of debate. A handsome reward will be given to whosoever shall restore the article in question, as it is more than probable that its late owner will, in the course of the next few months, have the most pressing need of it.—Punch.

WIT AND WISDOM.—A celebrated divine, who was remarkable in the first period of his ministry, for a boisterous mode of preaching, suddenly adopted a mild and dispassionate style. One of his brethren inquired what induced him to make the change? He was answered—"When I was young I thought it was the thunder that killed the people; but when I grew wiser I discovered that it was the lightning; so I determined to thunder less and lighten more in future."

The Duke of Wellington once left his umbrella by accident, on the stall of a lady of rank, at a fair. On returning to look for it, he was told that the umbrella had just been sold, for twenty-five guineas, by the lady, who could not resist the temptation of disposing of so valuable a relic for charitable purposes.

EMIGRANT SWINDLING IN NEW YORK.—The authorities in New York will permit the swindling of emigrants by bogus ticket sellers to continue. It is estimated that 300 persons are defrauded every month in that city, in the purchase of tickets for California alone, the aggregate of their losses being some $6000 per month.

AID FOR KANSAS.—The Massachusetts House of Representatives, yesterday, passed the resolve, appropriating $100,000 in aid of the sufferers of Kansas. They passed by a vote of 206 to 103. The cause is a good one, but the precedent is dangerous.—Prob. Journal.

The ship New Hampshire, from Glasgow for New York, with a cargo of pig iron and soda ash, went ashore on Jones Beach, Long Island, about one o'clock Tuesday morning, during the gale that prevailed at that time. No lives were lost, and it is thought the ship may be got off after her cargo is taken out.

On Thursday night the new steam boiler, recently put in the State Sentinel Office, Indianapolis, being tried for the first time exploded, killing instantly a young man named Homer, and badly injuring five others. The east wall of the building was blown down, and the damage to the presses types, etc., was very great.

George Wilson, who some time ago committed a violent assault on Mary Ann Baggot, an old lady of 70 years of age, in Providence, has been sentenced in the Supreme Court, to serve five years in prison at hard labor.

George W. Carno, a wealthy brewer of Detroit, and a fashionable Englishman, has been sentenced to six months in prison for his promise of marriage to Miss Annie C. Hall.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

He has stated to his friends that he will not be drawn into any newspaper controversy, being satisfied that while Governor he honestly and to the best of his ability discharged his duties. He also says he will not be responsible for publications of reported conversations, to be judged by his officials acts and the statements by himself committed to paper.

Several persons were seriously injured. The fire had caused great distress to many of the families burnt out. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

BALTIMORE, April 10.

COLLISION.—The steamer Louisiana, on her passage from Norfolk last night, came in collision with an unknown brig. The bowsprit of the latter entered the steamer's kitchen, sweeping out its contents, and finally forcing its way through one of the boilers. The extent of the damage to the brig was not known. LECOMPTON, KANSAS, March 25.

HOW THE BORDER RUFFIANS TAKE THE CENSUS.—As the law of the bogus legislature for taking the census allows sheriffs and their deputies four dollars per day for their trouble, there is a large number of them at work. They do not take much trouble with this census operation, getting all the information they want from their pro-slavery friends, and setting down only such as they want. They refuse to insert any of the names of the free States emigrants who have come in this spring, even of those who arrived early. They call them "transients." The country courts instruct them to take no names unless the party has been resident previous to the 15th instant. While this is the rule they observe toward free State men, they are putting thousands of names on the list who have never lived in Kansas, and who never will. The names of all the members of the Shawnee Association, some thirty-five hundred, are on the list of voters. It is the same elsewhere. It is now seen that all the suspicious and fears about the law are confirmed. The law itself will even be grossly violated whenever it suits.—Cor. Chicago Press.

IF PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, Still Triumphant—and, after a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, it has proved itself to be The Medicine of the Age.

The genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer is now put up in gold bottles, with the words PAIN KILLER in letters in the glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle—one an excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original inventor of the medicine, the other a steel engraved note of hand—none others can be relied upon as genuine. Price of bottles, 12 1/2 cents, 25c., 50c., $1 respectively.

One word in regard to Perry Davis' Pain Killer. I have used it in my family for some two years, and take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable medicine, that should be kept in every family. I have witnessed wonderful speedy cures by its use—recently, within the last week, I have known a very severe case of rheumatism soon relieved and promising a speedy cure, by its use, in my estimation, invaluable remedy.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF THE DEFENDANCE.—Sates 111 New York, Nov. 4th, 1856.

MR. ROBT. M. PATRICK, 192 Pearl-st. DEAR SIR:—The Defence Safe, No. 6,778, purchased from you about eighteen months since, was in my house at Newport, R. I., which, with the furniture, was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of 5th June last. The Safe, after being exposed to an intense heat for many hours, was recovered on the 10th of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the same was sent just as when recovered, until shipped to your address. Now, I was agreeably surprised, as were also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the Safes of your manufacture. Yours, Respectfully, DANIEL PARISH.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCA'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, equalizing, and removing all obstructions from the system.

All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature, and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 to STURGIS & CO., Box 24 Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country.
